Something must be the matter with THE LEDGER man, or Uncle Sam, or Mr. Bissell, or somebody, as 'The LEDGER's of Wednesday, May 30th, did not get here until Monday night, June 4th, just five days behind. How is it Tommy; where have they been all this time!—Mt. Olivet Tribune Democrat.

We don't know where they have been, dear brother. It may be the McKinley Bill had something to do with the delay.

Bill had something to do with the delay. Probably he largest ploce of timber ever taken out of Adams county. O., was taken to Winchestef for shipment to New York. It was drawn by sixteen teams of horses and mules. The piece of timber squared 46 inches, and measured 178 feet in length. It will be carried to New York by a double pair of trucks, and from there it will be shipped to Europe to be used in ship building.

Three Enfortunates.
Charles Austin, William Newell, Jr., and M. B. Strode were the three applicants before the Civil Service Board for examination Saturday. The reason we call them unfortunates is because of the "holy terror" of questions they had to worry over. And nine chances to one they never reached the goal.

DEATH'S HARVEST

Five Have Passed to the Great Be yond Since Saturday.

A telegram received in this city yester-day brought the sad and startling news of the death of Miss Grace Campbell, eldest daughter of T. C. Campbell of this city. She died in Cincinnati. Funeral tomor-row morning at 10 a. m.

William Jenkins, aged 25 years, brother of Perrine Jenkins, died at the residence of Mrs. W. P. Smoot in the Fifth Ward Saturday night at 0 clock of consumption. Mr. Jenkins was a young man who was liked by all who knew him—one of the all-around good fellows you don't meet every day. He has been, until a few weeks ago, at Colorado Springs for his health. His relatives have the sympally of the entire community. The funeral was held this morning at 10 o'clock, services by Rev. E. B. Cake.

The International Typographical Union will meet in Louisville the first Monday in Cotober. It is a safe to say that this Union is full of the brains of the country and no other gathering of men can produce such a body of statesmen.

The Ognthiana Democrat says: "Never judge by appearance. A shabby old coat may contain an editor, while the man waring high plug hat and supporting a dude cane may be a delinquent subscriber."

Mrs. Fannie Cady, wife of Walter Cady, wearing high plug hat and supporting a dude came may be a delinquent subscriber."

Charles L. Brierty of Augusta and Miss Ada Wood of Californis. Ky., were married Saturday at Covington by Rev. Postmater Carliele. This is the first time we have ever heard of a couple being married by the Postmaster at Covington.

Next Tuesday our Republican brethers will take ther iscalps—Bracken Ohronidet will take the city, and next November we will take ther scalps—Bracken Ohronidet to the district next November sure. Do you hear?

"Aunt" Lydia Strawder, one of the best known colored women in this section of the state, died yesterday morning about 9 o'clock, aged 79 years. She had been feeling bad before retirng Saturday night, and along in the night was seized with ramps, which resulted fatally. She was a good Christian lady and leaves a family of five children to mourn her loss, one of her sons being George Strawder, the Market street tonsorialist. Those of "Aunt" Lydia's white friends—and they are quite numerous—will regret to learn of her sad and sudden demise. The funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from Scott's Chapel, services 2 o'clock from Scott's Chapel, service by Rev. A. McDade.

Yesterday was what is known as Flower Mission Day, instituted by Miss Jonnie Casseday of Louisville. It was celebrated in this city by several young ladies from the Central Presbyterian Church's Y. P. S. C. E. and Mr. and Mrs. Johns Scott, also of that society, and Mrs. Johnson of the M. E. Church, South. The services consisted of an offering of flowers to those poor unfortunates who areincarcerated therein, each bequiether with the service of Scripture attached, prayer, praise and a regular church meeting.

The observance of Flower Mission Day was first thought of by Mrs. Scott, who is a valued member of the Woman's Christain Temperance Union of the United States, and we can but say that our city should feel proud of this most estimable Christain lady's presence within it, together with that of Mrs. Johnson and the young ladies who are now devoting their time to home mission work, and we must say a worl of encouragement to Mr. Scott and the young men who are so ably assisting in this work, Hal. C. Curran for one.

Augusta June 12th
THOMAS A. DAVIS.
Maysville, Ky., May 18th, 1894.

What the Senate Committee charged with investigating the speculations of Senators in sugar stock has done has created a desire for it to go further. If there were no im-tor McPherson's Ladies, I have just received a new li says The Cincinnati Commercial Gasette proceed to expose similar operations by other Senators—Sena-tor Brick, for instance? And why should it not be known whether Cleveland, Cara. Murphy, successor to Hopper tive branch of the comment of the executive branch of the Government improved their opportunities, and how much they made? The evidence as to McPHERSON was not easier to obtain than it would be as to others—BRICE, for example. Why not put him on the stand and let him tell to the committee any one of the various stories he has, at different times and at different places, told to individ-uals? At present the New Jersey Senator is a solitary black sheep apparently. It is not right to allow him to stand in that light, when, as Senator Chandler alleges on his own responsibility on the floor of the Senate, it would be hard to find a Democratic Senator who was not similarly tarred.

It is a serious question. Does it amount to nothing that Senators have speculated in stocks and voted in the Senate to make their speculation profitable? Is there nothing in this that an American Senator need blush for? At the very least, all such Senators should have the benefit of the showing that has been given McPherson. Who knows what the Senate Committe, should it go what he senate committe, should it go ahead in the investigation, would not find? There are hints of something worse than speculation. Such hints, if not based on something better than wild suggestion, should be cleared up. For instance, the Senator to whom it has been said a big block of stock was given is entitled to the proof that there was no such gift. The example of Senators trading in stock at the moment their votes would give value to their purcha-ses is not pleasing to the people, and, seemingly, no right-minded man would t an hour under the charge if it were t true. That Senators thus charged do not resent it is a virtual confession to the truth of it, and they must expect to wear the stamp of infamy. A Judge on the Bench who regulates his decision according to his speculations would stand very much in the same light the Senator stands in who gambled in sugar and voted to make his gambling win-

Great Confidence of a Settlement.

COLUMBUS, O., June 11.—The question on everybody's lips here Sunday night was "Will the strike be settled Monday?" and hoody was able to find a satisfactory answer. Opinions are greatly divided, but the aspect is growing dark, and it now begins to look as though this joint conference will result in naught. The rule that a settlement must be general and affect all districts involved prevents those that are disposed to compromise from entering into any agreement with their operators.

involved prevents those that are disposed to compromise from entering into any agreement with their operation of the compromise on 60 and 60 cents, but that there are others who are equally firm in opposition to the compromise on 60 and 60 cents, but that there are others who are equally firm in opposition to any sort of compromise. This effort has been in the nature of telegrams from the constituents of the miner' delegates urging the latter to stand firm of compromise. This effort has been in the nature of telegrams from the constituents of the miner' delegates urging the latter to stand firm of compromise. This effort has been in the nature of telegrams from the constituents of the miner' delegates urging the latter to stand firm of constituents of the constitu operators from that state now here are without authority.

There is one thing certain, according to the belief of every individual in a position to form an intelligent opinion, and that is, if this conference fails in its mission, there will follow the most terrible conflict since the civil war. The loss of life that will follow causes a shudder at the thought, and the de-struction of property will be appall-ing.

struction of property will be appeared. The conference is the critical prior the conference is the critical prior. The conference is the question, and solutiling as very body does the extreme gravity of the situation, all the counsellors of both operators and miners are using every whit of influence to get some sort of a compromise. This was the only encouraging feature of the conditions shady anjath, for it is becommittee will use every means to avoid the calamity sure to follow a disagreement.

Two Men Drink Aconile, Having Mistaken it for Alcoho, and Die Instanty.

SELMA, Alia. June 11.—Sunday morning Sid Fowlis. David Johnson and Fred Jones went out for a few days' fishing, seven miles from the city. They carried with them, as thought, a demijohn of alcohol. They stopped at demijohn of alcohol. They stopped at first to sample the contents of the demijohn. The old man died in a few minutes. Johnson, the owner of the demijohn, then gave his supposed alcohol to his companions to show that the old man died from other causes, but, not liking the taste, they both spit it out. Johnson then took a big swallow himself, and in ten minutes was dead. It now turns out that the deadly fluid was aconite, stolen through mistake for alcohol, from Cawthord & Coleman's drug store in this city.

HIGH ESTIMATION.

Sydnor Hall Was an Exemplifica-tion of Noble Manhood.

tion of Noble Manhood.

These few lines from Saturday's Commercial on the death of Sydnor Hall are the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth:

A cloud of gloom and sorrow hangs over the local office of the Kanawha Dispatch, which spreads over and eclipses the rays of brightness from all railroad and business circles of Cincinnati.

Death has called to his final reward one of the most prominent and dearly beloved railroad officials of this city in the person of General Manager Sydnor Hall of the Kanawha Dispatch, who, by his exemplification of noble manhood and unright trusts of character, has endeared himself to all with whom he came in contact, and his untimely death is a source of universal sorrow in the railroad world.
